

Industrial Technology (1 Year)

Industrial Technology I is designed to introduce the students to some of the various areas within Production and Maintenance. The students will be introduced to Drafting, Woodworking, Metalworking, and Construction. The very basics are taught in this course and it prepares the students for other courses offered within the Industrial Technology department. This class will furnish the students with the prerequisites required to be successful in advanced classes offered in the Manufacturing program. The career opportunities are tremendous for people in the field of Manufacturing Maintenance and Production and this class will hit the basics.

Products produced by each student in this class:

- Superclip
- Candleholder
- Sheetmetal Toolbox
- Cold Chisel
- Aluminum Cast Product

There is a fee associated with this class.

First Semester: Approximately $15.00

Second Semester: Approximately $15.00

Maximum Class Size: 16